Corresponding Secretary Report:

Penny Council mailed several reminders to our missing members in May and June. We received two membership renewals out of all reminders mailed.

Nothing in the PO Box as of 07-01-2025.

Get-well cards went to David Sessoms and others.

Cards of concern are to be sent to Jerry Dean and Richard Ramos

A thank-you card is to be sent to David Pendergraft for his last-minute DJ efforts.

Committee Reports:

- DJ's - Beverly Hobgood – Brooks Bristow is lined up for the July party and the rest of the year is also booked.
- Membership- we have 63 members. Party results – 24 paid members, 1 free pass, and 13 guests for a total of 38 participants.
- Phone Tree - Dwayne Baggett – no issues with the phone tree

Old Business

- Beverly has SOS cards for sale for Fall Migration, September 11-21. You will need an SOS card if you attend Fall Migration/
- Beverly Hobgood has ShagLife T-shirts $10 each.

New Business

- SOS Fun Monday tickets: Andy Privette has tickets to distribute. $10.00 buys you a chance at $1,500.00.
- It is time to renew the Certificate of Deposit with Truist Bank. Two options were proposed, a 6-month period at 3.75% or 12-month period at 4%. After discussing the pros and cons and for ease of management the 12-month option was selected and unanimously approved. Our Treasurer will visit the bank and renew the Certificate of Deposit with Truist Bank prior to the July 15.
- Andy Privette is looking for volunteers for the nominating committee. Elections will be here before you know it.

Concerns:

Richard Ramos and his continued recovery
Jerry Dean and his upcoming operation.

Adjournment

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.
