From the President's Pen...

Hello fellow FASA members, It has been a roller coaster February with the weather being warm one day and snow the next. We had lots of rain and many gloomy days. I think the weather and people being busy with travels caused our numbers to be low at the meeting and the party. Our party was very nice, and I felt that everyone was having a good time. Steve did a great job with the music and Leslie rolled out the red carpet for the Hollywood walk of fame. Plenty of good food, dancing, and visiting with friends. Thank You to all that helped and brought food. Our numbers may be down a bit, but our spirit is high.

Welcome to our new members who presented applications. They will be officially voted in by the general membership at the March Meeting.

The "Birthday Dance" is back at the parties and as always it is fun for all and especially the ones that have birthdays in the month of the party.

Don't forget the Sand Tunes concert with the Fayetteville Symphony and the Band of Oz Friday March 20 at the Carolina Barn. Also in March is our FASA Party with DJ Ashley Hollins on Saturday the 28th.

We need everyone that has not renewed their membership to do so ASAP. Reminder letters will be mailed soon. If your renewal and the reminder cross in the mail just disregard the reminder. Tell someone about FASA this week and invite them to the party so we can continue to Support the Dance, Music, and the Shag lifestyle. See you at the party.

Dwight

Thanks to Pat Trujillo!

Thank You

FASA President Dwight Vinson presented the "President's Pin" to Past President Pat Trujillo at the February FASA Meeting. Pat is a rare gem. She not only served as President two years in a row, she is now serving as Vice President. We value her dedication, time and talents more than we can express.

A colorful poster for the "Sand Tunes" concert. The poster features palm trees and a sunset background. The text reads: "Fayetteville Symphony Orchestra - & - Band of Oz present THE YEAR'S BIGGEST EVENT Sand Tunes featuring music of THE CAROLINA COAST". The event is on "6 - 10 PM FRIDAY MARCH 20 2020" at the "Carolina Barn". Ticket prices are "$50 PER PERSON $40 BEFORE 01/01/20". It also mentions "LIMITED VIP TICKETS & TABLES AVAILABLE". For tickets and more info, it provides the website "www.fayettevillesymphony.org" and the phone number "910-433-4690". At the bottom, it says "WE W FAYETTEVILLE GIMMER AND GO ARE: ARTS COUNCIL" and "Follow us at @faysymphony" with social media icons for Facebook and Instagram.

Happy March Birthday FASA Members!

February Membership Meeting Minutes

February 11 FASA Business Meeting

President Dwight Vinson called the meeting to order. A motion to accept the Minutes was made by Peggy Perry. Eric Rowe seconded the motion. A vote was taken. The motion passed.

Tom Hobgood gave the Treasurer's Report. Motion was made. There was a second. Motion passed.

Committee Reports:

Membership: Dwight reported that presently we have 52 active members. This number will carry over until February 28. He has moved 13 people to the Inactive list. The official letter to remind people that they need to rejoin FASA will be mailed on March 4, 2020. Also, at the Board Meeting it was decided that people who join at the February party will still get in free.

DJS: Beverly has booked the following DJS so far: February party-Steve Miller, March party-Ashley Hollins, May party-Terry McPhail, June party-David Sessoms

Ways and Means: Dwayne was absent. No report.

Hospitality: Leslie was absent, but a report was given for her. Our February party is February 22. The theme is Hollywood. She would like for members attending this meeting to bring finger foods. A list was passed around so we could sign up. There will be a red carpet for photo opportunities.

Publicity: Dwight remarked that Kathi Baloyot is maintaining a great website. It is current and appealing. Our number of 'hits' is very positive. Kathi posts our parties on Shagdance.com as well as the SOS FB page. Our FB page looks good. Pat Chabra thanked us for our soup donations to Fayetteville Urban Ministries. She said that we will be delivering the soup on February 18, 2020. She invited us to attend. Pictures will be made. This is Publicity opportunity for us to gain positive notice in the community.

Old Business: Dwight attended the ACSC winter meeting. Dwayne was reelected to the SOS Board. Mike Rink reported that clubs do not have to use ACDJs. However, it would be nice to suggest that nonmembers join the ACDJs.

The Sands Concert will be held on March 20, from 6-10, at the Carolina Barn. This is the Fayetteville Symphony Fundraiser. The general admission tickets are $50. This includes entry and 2 drink tickets. This is a combined concert of The Band of Oz and The Fayetteville Symphony. We have advertised this event by putting it on our website, giving out flyers and putting it on our FB page. We are providing 2 dance instructors-Leslie and Don Dumas. There will be Food trucks available. (Question: Would it be possible for us to set up a small table to promote FASA events by giving out our info cards and Tri-folds?)

Concerns: Gayle McDonald is concerned about Ray McLaurin. Joyce Ramos is in her 3rd week of Rehab. Presently, Cindy Giaccone is doing better. Beverly has sent out a second round of cards to Joyce and Cindy. She sent a sympathy card to Christine Plummer, who recently lost a loved one.

Dwight presented Pat Trujillo with a President's Plaque thanking for her for her 2 years as president.

There was a motion and a second to adjourn. A vote was taken, and the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Denise Rowe, Recording Secretary
