If you are interested in serving on the board, additional nominations will be received at the November meeting. There's no position that is too difficult and it can be an opportunity to expand your FASA experience. The club needs your participation to continue so please join and participate.

The October party food and music was extraordinary. Thanks to Beverly Hobgood, Peggy Perry, Rachel Dixon, and helpers for food and party preparation. A special shout-out to John Adkins for providing the fantastic tunes and at just the right volume!

Attendance was quite a disappointment but I hope the November turn out will be much bigger. Promise I will wear deodorant this time. Chigger Woods will be our DJ and I know you don't want to miss that. Dinner will be pot-luck so bring your favorite casserole or dessert.

Keep stretching,

Andy Privette

FASA MEMBER JAMES PARKER TO BE INDUCTED INTO “NATIONAL LIVING LEGENDS HALL OF FAME”

Longtime FASA Member James Parker has been on the dance floor since he was a teenager. James has been known as an Army Sergeant Major, professional fisherman and Carolina Shag dancer and not necessarily in that order. He’s also known as a dedicated father and friend to everyone he meets.

James is a member of the Fayetteville Area Shaggers Hall of Fame since 2008. You can view his induction story and plaque at this link on the FASA website: <http://www.fasadance.com/hall-of-fame-k-to-p.html>.

James is adding another honor to his legendary talents with his induction into the “National Living Legends Hall of Fame” on November 13-16. Dance styles to be honored include Shag, West Coast Swing, Imperial Swing, DC Hand Dance, DC Bop, Jitterbug, Bop, Hustle, Ballroom and more. Attendance is by invitation only.

COMPETITIVE SHAGGERS

If you’re new to the world of the Carolina Shag, you may not have heard about the Competitive Shaggers Association (CSA). Shaggers belonging to the organization compete in shag contests at several skill levels. Both Sanctioned and Non-Sanctioned events are held in various locations throughout the year. It’s a lot of fun watching shaggers who compete at this level. Everyone is invited to attend these contests and normally a fee is charged for entry. The CSA Website is: <https://competitiveshaggers.org/>

The CSA is starting a “Competitive Shaggers Walk of Fame” and is accepting nominations. The criteria for nominations and other information is in a letter attached to the email containing this newsletter.
