

October 18, 2016 - FASA monthly meeting at the Elks Lodge Meeting called to order at 8:00 pm by President, Andy Privette
SEPTEMBER MINUTES: Motion to approve was made by Grey Welborn, seconded by Denise Rowe and passed by the membership present. SEPTEMBER TREASURER'S REPORT: Treasurer Penny Council reported money market income of about $0.80 for September. Discussion regarding the dance contest earning and expenses ensued and after much presidential confusion a motion to approve was made by Dwayne Baggett, seconded by Grey Welborn and passed by the membership present. OLD BUSINESS: Please continue to check our website and news letter for upcoming club and area events. We will need deserts for the October party. It will be served by Eric and Denise Rowe, Steve Dawson, Sydney Giaccone, Karen and Bobby Clemenger. Come hungry. The Methodist University introduction to shag was very successful with about 10 couples from the Physicians Assistant Program attending. Peggy Perry, Kathi Baloyot, Dwayne Baggett, and Andy Privette assisted. The is talk of helping MU form a student shag club in association with FASA.

NEW BUSINESS: Many thanks and kudos to Dwayne Baggett for hosting an awesome second-Saturday SOS afternoon party at his 1st Avenue, NMB condo. Andy Privette and Peggy Perry have 2017 SOS cards for sale; $30 now, $35 during SOS events. David Sessoms stated that DJ Throw Down will be in March next year. See David for raffle tickets. $20.00 per ticket. Grand prize is $6000. Andy stated that having other types of fund raisers was discussed at the last board meeting. Some people may have alternative ideas. It was recommended that we have a 2017 committee for fundraisers. DJ David Sessoms stated that he felt that the idea of continuing the Fluff Daddy Memorial in some fashion was very important. Others suggested that the Fluff Daddy Dance contest could take on other forms such as one-day event and decent cover charge at the door. Ann Searcy, Corresponding Secretary, sent Paula Sue and Dwayne Baggett thank you cards for party. Ruby Hood is new grandmother. Congratulations. Peggy Perry reported about the Association of Carolina Shag Clubs meeting which occurred during this past SOS. The ACSC give all shag clubs guidelines. Summer workshop for 2017 is going to be at Lake Norman. The Gillespie Prints were returned except for one that was sold. There are three ACSC board seats up for election in 2017. The SOS parade theme will be given at ACSC midwinter meeting. Saturday, October 22 at the Eastover Community Center "The Classics" will be playing from 11:30 AM until 1:00 PM. Peggy reported on our storage facility on Raeford Road and the effects of the flooding. American Flag Storage, at no cost, relocated belongings to their facility on Hope Mills Rd. Kathi Baloyot talked about a swing dancing event at the Fayetteville Arts Council on November 3rd from 7:00 until 9:00. WWII era music and fun will be enjoyed. Toward the end of the meeting Ray McLaurin share is feelings regarding his 85th birthday dance at the Dance Contest event this past August. Ray expressed his heart-felt appreciation for the club and his many friends. Apparently Shag and a little wine can keep us all young. You are an inspiration to us all Ray. Peggy Perry read the October birthdays. Motion to Adjourn was made by Grey Welborn, seconded by Dwayne Baggett and passed by the members present. Respectfully Submitted Debbie Sessoms, Recording Secretary.
